Gentlemen:

I am writing to enclose check for baseball caps, and to tell you I have just sent the caps back to you by Railway express to have the letter "E" put on them. I would appreciate it if you could get them back to me by the first of April, as we leave for camp during that week.

I would like you to shippme a gross of balls as soon as possible. There is a credit balance due me that will pay for them.

Thanking you in advance for your cooperation.

Very Truly Yours
